

Seapath, a subsidiary of Libra Group, is a maritime infrastructure company dedicated to modernizing and strengthening the U.S. maritime industry. Below are sample key facts and figures:

- 1 in 6 American jobs are related to the marine industry. In an economy already feeling the effects of a recession, job growth is more important than ever.
(Source: National Ocean Policy Coalition)
- Water freight transportation contributes ~$15.8 billion to the U.S. GDP. U.S. maritime infrastructure must meet this vast demand while providing efficient services.
(Source: Bureau of Transportation)
- In 2020, maritime vessels accounted for 40% of U.S. international trade value, and U.S. ports saw more than 465,000 vessel calls, which is more than 10% of the global total of vessel calls.
(Source: Bureau of Transportation)
- 10% of U.S. coastal and inland ports are rated “good” or better.” This means at least 270 of the nation’s 300 facilities require significant investment.
(Source: Port Infrastructure | ASCE's 2021 Infrastructure Report Card)
- The nation’s coastal and inland ports are significant drivers of the U.S. economy, supporting over 30 million jobs and 25% of the total GDP in 2022.
(Source: ASCE's 2021 Infrastructure Report Card)
- The Jones Act contributes $41 billion in labor income and over $16 billion in taxes while creating nearly 650,000 jobs.
(Source: American Maritime Partnership)